By Bill Gersh

REPORT OF THE MEETING WITH OPA

NOTICE

Regardless of what you may have read or heard, this is the only complete, true and first hand report of the committee's meeting with officials of the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., Thursday, August 19, 1943, as reported by a member of the committee chosen to meet with OPA. (The Cash Box was the only coin machines publication to come to the fore and courageously arrange for a Wartime Conference, at its own expense and with no thought of personal profit, but instead for the good and welfare of the entire industry, to call together the operators, jobbers and distributors of this industry from among whom a committee could be chosen to meet with OPA. In keeping with its established policies The Cash Box brought you a first hand report of the first Wartime Conference and the minutes of this meeting are at the offices of The Cash Box for the perusal of any coin machines man. Here again The Cash Box brings you the only complete and first hand report of what actually took place when the chosen committee met with OPA.)

It is historical to note at this time that the marvelous fighting spirit of the coin machines men has come to the fore, aroused by The Cash Box, which offset the first frightening published reports about MPR-429 by a complete analysis of this regulation. This fighting spirit is better than ever exemplified in the fact that the industry is today wholeheartedly back of The Cash Box to continue its brave fight until complete clarification is won at OPA and an organization of mutual benefit to all organizations and individuals in this industry is set up for its future protection and welfare. It was this fighting spirit which caused the members of the industry to ask The Cash Box to call for a Second Wartime Conference within 60 days as reported in our last issue. A form is attached to this issue for your promised attendance at this conference. It is the hope of those who attended the first Wartime Conference that this mutually beneficial organization will be realized at this Second Wartime Conference.

The committee of six men appointed at the first Wartime Conference held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City, August 16 and 17, to represent this industry went on to Washington, D.C. on Wednesday, August 18, 1943 and met at the Mayflower Hotel that evening and the next morning to discuss the presentation of their problem to the Office of Price Administration on Thursday, August 19. It is pertinent to explain here that the members of this committee continued in conference thruout Wednesday morning and evening and into Thursday morning, without regard to their own rest or time (and entirely at their own expense) and went on to the Office of Price Administration where the OPA group of officials awaited them.

The conference started at 2:30 P.M. Thursday. Present for the coin machines industry were: Wm. Marmer of Sicking, Inc., Cincinnati, O., representing operators, jobbers and distributors; Alfred W. Blendow, president of the Arcade Owners Ass'n., New York, representing arcade operators; Henry J. Windt of Hoosier-Simplex Music Company, Indianapolis, Ind., chosen at a meeting of operators in Indiana to represent them at this first Wartime Conference; Alvin J. Goldberg of Chicago-Simplex Distributing Co., Chicago, Ill., who also has offices in Indiana, California, Pennsylvania and New York representing distributors; Lee J. Rubinow, president of the Automatic Operators Ass'n. of New York, representing operators; and Bill Gersh of The Cash Box who was chosen as spokesman for this committee.

The committee was greeted with extreme cordiality. The officials of OPA were tremendously interested in what could be done for this industry regarding price regulation. Questions were shot at the members of this committee by all these officials and the general idea was to learn just how and why and where and when a ceiling could be arranged and regulation put into effect. It is understood, as explained by OPA, that this industry, like any other, is subject to regulation. It is also understood that this industry has been and continues to be under GMPR (General Maximum Price Regulation). In fact, all industries are generally covered by GMPR. The very fact that more specific regulations are now being written for each and every industry is to supersede this general coverage by GMPR. MPR-429 supersedes GMPR and becomes law as of September 1, 1943.

The committee was brief and to the point in explaining why MPR-429 would prove injurious to all in this industry. The committee not only explained that this regulation hurt the capital investment of each and every operator in this industry but that it would also absolutely curtail sailes and therefore others would suffer to a great extent. At the same time the spokesman for the committee explained that the problem of MPR-429 permeated itself down to the distributors, jobbers and operators. The following chart was drawn to explain this point. The chart was arranged to show the various steps in the complete working set-up of the coin machines industry.

MANUFACTURER
TO
DISTRIBUTOR AND JOBBER
TO
TO
LOCATION OWNER
CONSUMER

The manufacturer was immediately eliminated from the chart due to the fact that he is not manufacturing coin operated machines at present and therefore has no bearing in MPR-429. Next the consumer was removed from the chart for it was explained that he is already protected by the mechanical limitations of the machines themselves and is therefore not being overcharged for the services which coin operated machines render. (In short, 20 years ago the consumer paid 5¢ per phono play and is still paying the same. This is also true of all other types of equipment on the market at this time.) The location owner was next eliminated from this chart due to the fact that he is not interested in MPR-429. He is only interested in receiving his commissions from the machines. He does not buy or sell machines. Therefore this left the distributor and jobber and the operator, and these were the men represented at this meeting.

OPA's officials then asked questions regarding prices of equipment generally. This was explained by the operators on this committee. As one official, questioning one of the committee asked, "You would rather have a low price, wouldn't you, than pay a high price?" This operator intelligently answered that he would much prefer to pay the higher price and know that the machine he was getting and placing on location would have more attractiveness and eye appeal and play appeal and thereby bring him so much better returns than to place a machine on location that was shoddy and worn looking and which he knew, from past experience, would not bring him profit at all, but more than anything else, would actually lose the play. OPA also wanted to know whether the present "service" being rendered to the consumer today was as good as the service being rendered in the past. This was marvelously answered by one music operator who explained that today the public were not only getting better, amplified tone, but also better and more costly records made by better, higher paid orchestras as well as finer service in a much more beautiful machine and a greater selection of music, and that they were still only paying the same nickel for all this tremendously improved service.

OPA then questioned as to where a possible line of demarcation could be drawn. That is, where the distributors and operators would be satisfied, as far as price of used machines was concerned. This was also well handled by the committee who stated that they were more than willing to work out a schedule of prices with OPA. It was, after much questioning along this line that OPA's officials asked just what could be done for this industry under the present MPR-429. It was here that the committee explained that the operators, jobbers and distributors were in the wholesaler category according to OPA's own definition of what a sale at wholesale was as contained in MPR-429. One member of the committee dramatically explained the fact that no operator nor jobber nor distributor actually "used" the machines he purchased. The committee asked after this explanation, that the words "or leasing" be added to the present definition of a "sale at wholesale" and thereby clarify the operators in this industry as "wholesalers". At this juncture in the discussions it was noted that more than three hours had already been consumed.

It was pointed out that this industry would have to go back under GMPR if it was removed from MPR-429, where it has always been along with all other industries. Whether or not the coin machines industry would be entirely removed from MPR-429 wasn't definite. But, if the operators are classified as wholesalers in this interpretation then as far as this industry is concerned they are excepted from this regulation (for wholesalers are excepted from MPR-429.) At the same time it was explained that where two or three old machines were used to make one machine that these men who are rebuilding such machines come under Regulation 188 (of course with the understanding that they are paying the 10% excise tax to the federal government). But even under this Regulation 188 the rebuilder 's status is very hard to define for his product actually becomes a new product and not something that was formerly manufactured.

The answer to this entire problem we believe should be a new regulation referring specifically to this industry with probably a "dollar and cents" ceiling, as was the expression used by one of the OPA officials at this meeting. But whether OPA wants to take the time now to write such a regulation is something that can be cause for speculation.

It is well to remember that as far as the 130,000,000 consumers of this nation are concerned none of these is being affected by this regulation. They are still paying the same price for the services rendered by this industry as they always did.They are completely protected by the mechanical limitations of the machines themselves. Therefore the consumers are not being hurt. Of course, were some consumer to purchase a machine for his own use, or were some of the department and sporting goods store sales of coin operated machines to be made to some consumer, then naturally these would be covered by MPR-429.

But due to the fact that this little industry is not affecting the 130,000,000 consumers in these United States in any serious fashion and even if MPR-429 continues on as a law it is more or less understood that deals will be excepted from this regulation just as sales at wholesale are excepted from this regulation. In short, we return to the original point as analyzed and explained sometime ago in The Cash Box - and that is, that sales between jobbers and operators, between distributors, jobbers and operators, between distributors and operators, are all "wholesale sales" for eventually the operator, too, resells the machine he has purchased.

We have faith in the committee that represented this industry. We believe that their work was extremely commendatory. We know that they carefully and intelligently and efficiently explained their industry. The very fact that they were complimented at the end of this meeting is sufficient proof to all that this industry was well represented at this meeting with the Office of Price Administration.

Personally, we are of the belief that whether MPR-429 remains in effect or not that it will not affect the sales of this industry from the standpoint of wholesale sales. It is our belief that to get true regulation an entirely new bill will have to be written and that this will require the services of the outstanding operators, jobbers and distributors in this industry, and take months to complete.

This report is not to be taken as a "word for word" report of all that transpired at this meeting. Such a report would require many times more pages than are here already. With all modesty, having been a member of this committee, let it be said that this committee handled itself in such fine fashion that it can only be complimented to the skies. To sit here and read this report is simple. But, to enter into a room with OPA, not knowing what questions will be shot at them, not knowing the attitude ofthe men with whom they will meet, not having ever met with any government agency previously, is a severe mental strain.

For the marvelous job they accomplished in this meeting with OPA-The Cash Box takes great pleasure in giving our Honorable Mention Award to the members of this committee; namely: Wm. Marmer of Cincinnati, Ohio; Alvin J. Goldberg of Chicago, Ill.; Henry J. Windt of Indianapolis, Ind.; Alfred W. Blendow of New York and Lee J. Rubinow of New York. And, in addition, wants to personally thank them on behalf of all this industry for the marvelous explanatory and good will job they did.

SECOND WARTIME CONFERENCE

Now that the first milestone has been passed on the road to the creation of an organization to act as a common meeting ground for all the organizations and all the rugged individuals in this industry it is the hope of The Cash Box that the plea of those who attended the first Wartime Conference will be realized and that a Second Wartime Conference, to take place in 60 days, to arrange for the National Coin Machine Board of Trade or the National Coin Machines Chamber of Commerce or whatever name will finally be decided upon to designate this organization as a mutually beneficial organization for all concerned will be made a tremendous and outstanding success. By filling out the form enclosed with this issue you will make this Second Wartime Conference possible. By getting all your friends and acquaintances in this industry to do the same you will make it completely representative of this industry. By such action you will have caused this industry to again advance one more progressive step forward.

A (1943) COPYRIGHTED FEATURE OF "THE CASH BOX" 381 FOURTH AVE., NEW YORK

Willie (Little Napoleon) Blatt of Supreme (Gun) Enterprises, Brooklyn, New York, is wearing a $500.00 sport coat these days. It seems that Willie came back to a gathering of friends after being in about $200.00 on the card game and the boys induced him to linger on a while - the result being Willie lost the $200. plus an additional $300. and the boys now claim that Willie is wearing a $500. sport jacket. Willie claims, "I returned to get my coat and lost my pants".....The boys who were members of the Committee that met with OPA in Washington are calling Bill (The Cash Box) Gersh, "The dramatic woodchopper", because of the dramatic way he explained the word "use" to OPA's officials.....And this same gang is calling Al Goldberg of Chicago-Simplex, "4% Goldberg".....Sidney Levine, counsellor for the N.Y. phono organization actually stayed over in Washington to have breakfast in bed - and didn't get it - so he claims.....R. H. (Bob) Warner of Buckeye, Columbus, O. found out that "dem bones" can roll plenty little deuces, too.....Ken (Whattaman) Willis of United Novelty, Biloxi, will always recall that entertainment at Radio Franks one eve..... Ben (Olive Novelty, St. Loo) Axelrod brought the family along to N.Y.C. and they took in all the rubberneck sights - and by golly, really enjoyed 'em, but good.....Henry J. Windt of Indianapolis, Ind., proved himself an outstanding athlete by walking seven or ten miles every morning and evening while in Washington - we wonder if this had anything to do with the tremendous majority of gals in this town.....Dave Stern of Royal Distribs sprawled out on Ken O'Connors bed at the Waldorf-Astoria and Dan Hawley egging him on to make a long distance phone call to California at 4 in the dawning and Dave actually making the connection and chopping off some of the costs by outshouting the poor little tele operator.....Barney (Shugy) Sugerman making a dash for the warm sands of Atlantic City after the conference, claiming, "I need a rest".....Joe Ash of Active Amusement, Philly, looking over his suite at the Waldorf and naively exclaiming "This is what I call living".....Earl (Cowboy) Reynolds of Dallas, Tex., pulling in late for the first meet because this train was delayed and bearing a kiss for a friend from wife Audrey.....Lee J. Rubinow prexy of the phono ops in New York City telling the world why it pays to pay more.....Charley (Buckley Trading Post) Katz making 66 guys faint by pulling out a 15¢ cigar and actually smoking it right in front of them .....Bill (Sicking)Marmer passing up a swell fishing trip to New England because, "I wanna go home", he says.....Joe Westerhaus getting the glad hand and plenty of nice compliments from the boys at the Waldorf-Astoria who compliment him on his revamps... Roy Torr of Philadelphia taking in all that was said at the Wartime Conference and verra, verra much impressed.....Woolf Solomon calls himself "Johnson" when he wants to be incognito.....Lew (best dressed man) London still maintaining his well clothed reputation and bragging, and bragging and bragging about those two swell kids and his stud farm. "Imagine", he says, "I just got 50 bucks for one of my stud horses doing a job".....Jack G. Bett just out of the Merchant Marine and listening in for Frank Page of Roanoke, Va., because Frank simply couldn't get a train up to New York.....And dozens and dozens of telegrams and phone calls coming into The Cash Box offices advising no traveling accommodations possible so the boys just have to stay home, much as they would like to come along.....R. Q. "Boots" Strange of Danville, Va., has one helluva swell argument as to why a dictator or czar should be appointed. He points to Landis, Hayes, et al, and has a real argument to back it all up.....Morris Gisser claims he's going to paint a sign for himself reading, "Be an operator at your own risk".....Ike Berman of Economy Supply comes in with that big personality smile and is amazed at all the gathering.....Eddie Corriston of The Palisades explaining that he's so busy these days and nights it's a wonder he hasn't a broken back.....Willie (West Virginia) Levey comes in with a real mountain yodel to attend the affair in comfortable slacks, sports shirt, etc., and says, "Boys, I'm on a vacation, believe it or not".....Mike Munves sitting by calmly and dignified and just listening.....And believe it or not when the gang gathered at Bill Gersh's suite they all asked for - coffee. Yes, sir, they've cut cut down on the firewater. Or maybe they're getting older.....John L. Jones of Hickory, N. C., a tremendously interested spectator and much, much impressed with the idea that a National Coin Machines Board of Trade be created....Same goes for Frank Engel of Philadelphia and Irv Blumenfeld of Baltimore and Jack Kauffman of Philadelphia and Ed. Ravreby of Boston and Leo Fiske of Haverhill,Mass., and dozens of others.....Sam Conte of Haverhill, Mass. made a clean-up at this affair, and not from the saleof those two slots, either.....Herman (Runyon Sales) Perin reports in and is greeted effusively by some who know him with "What the hell are you doing here?".....Al Liberman of B. & W., Cincinnati, O., claims,"Bill Marmer dragged me along - he wanted company on the trip." .....Max Roth of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., drops in and listens with great interest to the meetings.....AND all the guys and gals are looking forward most eagerly to the SECOND WARTIME CONFERENCE - better be there....Fred Iverson is very proud of Fred, Jr. who enlisted in the air corp, and sent the boy off to camp with big party, prior to attending the conference....Plenty of the boys make deals before and after the conference.

Bally HELPED DO THE JOB

Speaking to Bally* workers recently, a veteran of Guadalcanal described a Jap bombing mission, consisting of 31 high-altitude bombers. All 31 bombers were brought down by American planes. Destruction of the bombers enabled American forces to sink 24 Jap ships, including 12 transports.

Bally* workers grinned with pride when the speaker ended his talk by saying: "The destruction of these 31 bombers was helped by a product which you manufacture here in this factory. Without this product, our planes could not have coped with the Japs."

Bally* engineers and workers are proving daily that their skill—developed in peace-time production of coin-operated games and venders —is a valuable asset to America in time of war. And Bally's* performance in war production is a forecast of Bally's* performance in the victorious future.

Operators and distributors who want early information on Bally's post-war equipment are urged to place their names on a special mailing list now being compiled for Bally's Post-War Flash No. 1.

* War products manufactured by Bally organization are contracts in the name of Lion Mfg. Corporation, of which Bally Mfg. Company is a division.

NOTICE

THIS IS A REPRINT OF OUR CONFIDENTIAL PRICE LISTS COMPILATION OF USED EQUIPMENT SHOWING MARCH, 1942 QUOTATIONS IN ONE COLUMN AND LEAVING ROOM FOR YOU TO WRITE IN THE HIGHEST PRICES AT WHICH YOU SOLD ANY OF THESE ITEMS DURING MARCH, 1942.

(A) On items you sold in March, 1942, the figures you write in column 2 (left blank for you for that purpose) will be YOUR ceiling prices, whether your prices were higher or lower than those shown. (GMPR 1499.2, Paragraph A.)

(B) On items you did not have occasion to sell during March, 1942, column 1, showing quotations of your competitors can be used as your ceiling prices. (GMPR 1499.2, Paragraph B.)

THE ABOVE APPLIES TO WHOLESALERS UNDER GMPR (General Maximum Price Regulation) AS AMENDED MARCH 11, 1943.

WHOLESALERS ARE EXEMPT FROM MPR-429 (THIS IS THE REGULATION EFFECTIVE SEPT. 1, 1943)

DEFINITION OF A WHOLESALER ACCORDING TO GMPR

(P) " 'Sale at wholesale' means a sale by a person who buys a commodity and resells it without substantially changing its form to any person other than the ultimate consumer except that for the purposes of Paragraph 1499.3 of this General Maximum Price Regulation a sale at wholesale shall include any sale by such person to an industrial or commercial user."

DEFINITION OF A WHOLESALER ACCORDING TO MPR-429

(Sec. 4, P. 4) "Sales at wholesale. A sale at wholesale is a sale to a person who buys for the purpose of reselling the goods rather than for use. Sales at wholesale remain covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation."

IMPORTANT WATCH FOR EACH WEEK'S NEW ISSUE OF "THE CONFIDENTIAL PRICE LISTS" SHOWING CURRENT QUOTATIONS MANY OF WHICH ARE BELOW CEILING PRICES!
